

$30 REWARD.

RUN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 28th day of December, 1830, a negro girl by the name of Caroline, who calls herself Caroline Landick. It is likely that she will change her name. She is well formed, about five feet four or five inches high, 23 years of age, a dark yellow complexion; when spoken to, she speaks short, with a grim and down look. No other marks recollected, only some scars on her shoulders below the hem of her dress. Her clothing, when she left home, was in part a striped linsey dress, blue, yellow, and white, and a striped cotton dress. Also, a variety of other clothing, not recollected, a good straw bonnet. If taken within ten miles of Rockville, I will give ten dollars; if taken in the District of Columbia twenty dollars; and if taken and secured in any jail further than the distance above mentioned, the above reward will be given, and if brought home all reasonable charges will be paid.

SARAH DUVALL.

Montgomery County, Maryland, Jan. 34, 1830.

Jan 4—1831